Crimson Glow

Crimson Glow took more first prizes, last year, than any other red

This magnificent red, produced by Betscher, and named and introduced by me, several years ago, is quite the best red for every purpose and still continues to be the most popular.

The large, open flowers of an intense deep scarlet, entirely free from any brick or orange tints, and the long, willowy stems give it great decorative value. No garden or planting is complete without it.

We have a very large stock and are offering it at $1.00 per doz., $7.50 per 100; 25 bulbs at the 100 rate.

Try some of this splendid variety this year.

Stillwaters Gardens Gladioli

*"I'd like to sow each barren spot,
With all the flowers of Earth,
having lived and having toiled,
I'd like the world to find
Some little touch of beauty
That my soul had left behind."*

—Guest.

OF a beautiful flower, it may be said, as is often said of a kind heart, "It is a fountain of gladness, making every thing in the vicinity freshen into smiles."

The real and lasting beauty, the general satisfaction found in the Gladiolus and its unrivaled effectiveness in both garden and home, make the flower, each year more and more indispensable in every garden scheme.

Much of the garden joy lies in its color combinations, its masses of single color, its contrasts of two or many, in endless variety.

He who buys one bulb, or many, buys for beauty of color and form, in which the Gladiolus world moves.

Not many of us are concerned with or interested in the multitudinous rating points for Gladiolus, now so popular with exhibition hobbyists, but we are intensely interested in placing before the layman in the Gladiolus world, a list of varieties, best in type, form and color, and in general usefulness for garden and home. These will, naturally, be prize winners if the purchaser is so interested.

Of the newer varieties, it will be noted that we list only those which have shown marked qualification, after at least three years' trial.

Beautiful as are many of the newer productions, none have, or will surpass some of the older sorts, as Mrs. Dr. Norton, Mrs. Frank Pendleton, Baron Hulot, Niagara, Mary Fennell, which have stood supreme under every test.

Of the newer ones, Rose Ash, Evelyn Kirtland, Crimson Glow, Purple Glory, Pink Wonder, Scarlet Wonder, Albania, Nancy Hanks, Osalin, will have a place in the garden of every flower lover, which will be permanent.

Rosenel, Pythia, Elizabeth Tabor, Saraband, Remembrance, Odin and Catherine Coleman are regal in both form and coloring.

I have been growing and hybridizing Gladioli for nearly forty years, and while it has been my pleasure to introduce many worth while varieties, I have always tried out the productions of others and listed in our booklet only the best, after careful testing in our trial beds. For this reason, we feel sure that our list offers only those which will give entire satisfaction, in their several color sections.

We are always glad to give suggestions for plantings of Gladiolus and for the annuals which grow so well with them.

We hope that Gladiolus and Dahlias from Stillwaters Gardens will continue to give beauty and pleasure in your garden, in your friend's garden, and in every garden into which these magnificent bulbous flowers have yet to be introduced.

Orchid Lady (See page 11)

- Muriel. Most attractive blue-lavender, slightly darker tips and throat. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.
- Mystic. Soft cherry rose, effective white lines in throat. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.
- Nancy Hanks. A new California offering. Beautiful flowers of soft yellow, overlaid peach salmon. Very fine open flowers on graceful spike. $1.00 each, $10.00 per doz.
- Niagara. A light crocus-yellow, throat shaded deeper. Large, open flowers on a strong spike. For color, texture and keeping qualities this Gladiolus is one of the very best. $1.00 per doz., $7.50 per 100.
- Nora. Beautiful lavender-blue, with darker spot on lower petals. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.
- Odin. Exquisite deep salmon rose, suffused orange, with broad red spear on lower petals. Very large flowers, and early. $1.00 per doz., $7.50 per 100.
- Orchid Lady. A very beautiful shade of orchid lavender, slightly deeper than that of a Cattleya Orchid. Delicate in its tone, with a silvery sheen. There are absolutely no lines; deep in the throat a touch of cream that adds to its beauty. The flowers are very large. The spikes tall and straight. This variety won the A. G. S. Silver Medal for best seedling at the New York Show, also for the largest flower in the show. $8.00 each.
- Osalin. Soft salmon rose, suffused salmon. Magnificent flowers of a most unusual coloring. $1.00 each, $10.00 per doz.
- Panama. A perfect hermosa pink in color, with large, wide-open, wax-like flowers. 75 cts. per doz., $5.00 per 100.
- Peace. A grand white flower, very large, with pale violet feathering on inferior petals; flowers correctly placed on a tall, graceful spike. Plant early as it blooms late. 75 cts. per doz., $5.00 per 100.
- Pink Lily. Beautifully ruffled, deep rose pink. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.
- Pink Perfection. True La France pink. The soft coloring and magnificent texture of the flowers make it one of the choicest varieties. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.
- Pink Wonder (Kemp). The sensational new pink Gladiolus, in color a shade lighter than Panama, base of petals light corn yellow, feathered rose. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.
- Prince of India. A dull old rose, suffused and streaked with purple, with wide open flowers, many open at one time. A unique and attractive variety, well worth trying. $5.00 per doz., $40.00 per 100.

Purple Glory

Prince of Wales. A clear grenadine pink or deep buff, with throat markings of a deeper tone. A long, graceful spike. $1.00 per doz., $7.50 per 100.

Purple Glory. Ruffled flowers of deep, velvety purple. $2.50 per doz., $20.00 per 100.

Pythia. Magnificent rose blooms of great substance. While Crimson Glow leads the list of glowing dark reds, Pythia is supreme in deep rose-red Gladiolus. $3.00 per doz., $25.00 per 100.

Remembrance. Deep rose pink, flowers of great substance, with purple blotch in throat. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.

Rev. Ewbank. A beautiful light porcelain-blue. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.

Rose Ash. Ashes of Roses. A variety which has attracted much attention. Very large flowers. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.

Rosenel. One of the most beautiful wine red Gladiolus, with cherry tints. Glowing in the depth and richness of color. $5.00 per doz., $40.00 per 100.

Rouge Torch. Large creamy-white flower, with a rouge, torch-like tongue on inferior petals, making a striking contrast. $1.00 per doz., $7.50 per 100.

Saraband. Peculiar but attractive coloring. Rose brown, with cream markings in throat. Very large flowers and long spike. $1.00 each, $10.00 per doz.

Scarlet Princeps. Six or more massive princeps-like blooms open at a time. Throat a little deeper. Blooms set close. An extraordinary distinct and massive spike. See illustration page 14. $1.50 per doz., $10.00 per 100.

Scarscale. An old reliable variety of rosy mauve coloring. $1.00 per doz., $7.00 per 100.

Sheila. Delicate pink, with salmon tints; very graceful. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.

Sidney Plummer. Charming soft yellow with amber throat makings and stripe of iris purple. $2.50 per doz., $22.00 per 100.

Violet Glory. Rich violet self color. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.

White Glory. A very striking variety, tall and showy. Color a clear, solid white, with dark iris-blue tongue on lower petals. In appearance it is like an iris. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.

White Wonder. (Kemp). A superb white with lily-like flower, having the same habit as the very popular variety Mrs. Francis King.

Flowers pure white without markings. Splendid for forcing and a marvel for the garden. $2.00 per doz., $15.00 per 100.

Wilbrinck. This variety has everything to recommend it. Immense blooms of a delightful flesh pink, on a graceful spike. An early and profuse bloomer. A few spikes make a splendid decoration. $1.00 per doz., $7.50 per 100.

Yellow Prince. A choice addition to the yellow Gladiolus. A clear pinard-yellow with flowers well placed on a willowy stalk. Fine in combination with all lavenders. $1.00 per doz., $7.50 per 100.

Primulinus Hybrids

Our Hobby

THE NEW ORCHID GLADIOLUS

"Pearl glint, shell tint, perfectest, ancientest hues, Ever shaming the maidens."

The new race, the Primulinus Hybrids, about which so much is written, is truly the coming Gladiolus. Exquisite shades of all colors from terra cotta, through bronze, copper, rose, pink, saffron, apricot, buff, a few lavenders, and down the color scale to white. Their beauty is hard to describe, but to see them is to want them, not by the bulb, but by the hundred. Smaller than the other types of Gladiolus, the daintiness, of form, and arrangement on the spikes, add to their decorative value. We have as a basis for our unqualified praise for the Primulinus Hybrids, the fact that almost every order for flowers or bulbs includes them. They are equally desirable for forcing.

From the mixtures of Primulinus Hybrids, one may select a vase of yellow, rose, apricot, orange or bronze blooms, but for those who are interested in a collection of named sorts, we are offering a selection which includes the best, among which will be found some colorings not in the mixtures.

The delicacy of coloring and the throat markings in all of these give each one an individual fascination, which words and phrases fail to describe.

Mixtures, Large-Flowering

ture includes all of the best varieties selected from the collections of the best hybridizers and growers of both American and European countries. All varieties have been selected with a view of eliminating all colors which do not harmonize either in cut flowers or garden planting, giving a most interesting and satisfactory mixture to grow. $5.00 per 100, $40.00 per 1000.

Housatonic Mixture. Contains an endless variety of color, striped, variegated, mottled, as well as a fine selection of clear colors, with beautiful throat markings. The variety is unlimited and is sold at the low price of $3.00 per 100, $25.00 per 1000.

Housatonic Seedlings. These introductions have been awarded numerous gold and silver medals and certificates of merit, and to induce large plantings of these seedlings, we are offering blooming size bulbs at the extremely low price of $2.00 per 100, $18.00 per 1000.

Florists Prize Mixture. Whites, creams, light rose and delicate pinks, and a great many with beautifully marked or penciled throats. A mixture of exclusive quality. $3.00 per 100, $25.00 per 1000.

No orders for these mixtures taken for less than 25 bulbs; 25 at the 100 rate, 250 at the 1000 rate.

Cultural Directions

"Spend as much time as you can in God's out of doors."—Van Dyke.

The Gladiolus is a flower of easy culture and does well in any soil, but should be planted in full exposure to the sun. They will do well planted in the hardy borders or in front of shrubbery. Many of the best varieties produce small bulbs, and in buying a mixture you will find it much better when the size of the bulbs varies to a considerable degree. In buying bulbs, do not always select the largest bulbs. You lose the cream of the stock offered. Many of the choicest varieties do not produce large bulbs; the large bulbs may prove to be "blind," past blooming age. Size is not virtue, but it is essential that the bulbs should be of blooming age, fully developed and healthy, rather than large and overgrown, punky and soft.

It must also be remembered that one who makes a specialty of producing can naturally give greater satisfaction to customers.

Soil should be well prepared in the early Spring, with a good coating of agricultural lime and bonemeal thoroughly worked into the soil, but fresh stable manure should be used only where the ground may be manured the previous Fall and well worked over in the Spring before planting.

The various ways in which Gladiolus can be planted make it one of the most showy and attractive garden flowers. Planted in round, oblong, or square beds, planting bulbs from 4 to 6 inches apart, so that they may be weeded and hand-hoed, they will give a wealth of color not equaled by any other flower.

Plantings for cut flowers should be made in rows 18 inches apart, with bulbs 3 inches apart in the row, covering from 4 to 6 inches, according to the size of the bulbs; press the earth firmly around each bulb. Care should be taken to plant the bulbs right side up, and deep enough so that the new bulb, which forms on top, will not be pushed too near the surface. For succession of bloom, plant from the time the ground can be worked until July 1.

After the spike begins to show, all weeds should be removed, and if the soil is kept thoroughly worked, watering will hardly be necessary; they are great drinkers, however, and respond quickly to water. Always water after sundown.

There is no finer garden flower, but the finest specimens are shown if the spike is cut when the first bud opens and allowed to develop in the house; every bud on stalk will open and the richest colorings result; this is also a benefit to the bulb. The flower-loving public must be educated to a willingness to cut the spikes when they have bloomed a little while in the garden, then to finish their development in the house. Nothing is more unsightly than a mass of ragged, betasseled Gladiolus, when it is so easy to pick off the withered blooms.

In cutting the flower spikes, it is ruinous to cut the stalk where the flowers end. There must be some foliage to lend grace. Cut the spikes so as to leave two or three leaves on your bulb root, thus giving you a flower spike sometimes nearly 4 feet long, leaving plenty of strength for the bulb, and beauty for the decoration.

In shipping cut blooms of the Gladiolus, it is absolutely essential that they be shipped dry, after standing for a while in water.

A great many varieties do extremely well under glass, and anyone having a greenhouse should by all means force some Gladiolus, planting about January first, allowing from 12 to 13 weeks from planting to blooming time, with a temperature of about 55 degrees, or in Carnation beds.

The illustration shows the bulb as it looks when you dig it. The bulb you planted in the Spring dies away and the new one forms on top, so that it is nearer the surface than the original planting.

Bulbs should be dug as soon as the foliage turns brown or is cut down by frosts; cut stalks close to the bulbs. If possible, allow to cure in the sun or in a cool, dry place, then, removing old corm, store in trays or baskets, in a temperature as near 40 degrees Fahrenheit as possible.

The Modern Dahlia

*"Soul, couldst thou bare thy breast,
As yon red dahlia dares the day,
All clean, and large and calm,
With velvet rest?"*

The Dahlia is so decidedly the flower in the limelight just now that we hesitate to say that it needs any special encouragement.

We note the interest in blooms of moderate size, and the growing realization that often the greatest merit the monstrous productions have is price. Everyone admires strength in plants and flowers, but few find any great joy in the enormous blooms which have seemed to be the mark of perfection at most of the exhibits in recent years. The flower that professional or novice may grow to perfection is the flower in greatest demand.

Also of interest is the renewed demand for the old-fashioned ball or show Dahlia, and the keeping qualities of the old favorites are a telling factor in their return to popularity. They give fine blossoms, in most beautiful colorings, are borne on stems which need no support, and have vitality enough to stand up more than a day. Our selection of Show Dahlias embraces the best of the old and the new varieties.

We have always found great possibilities, both for the garden and the home, in the artistic Single Dahlias, and the dainty Pompons.

Our selection of varieties for our 1928 booklet has been made after a careful study of all types as shown at Fall exhibits and from results in our trial beds. Color descriptions are based on Ridgeway's Charts.

If we do not list the variety you wish, we shall be glad to get it for you. We plan to give our customers the same careful attention to all orders as in previous years, and the soil in our new location is so exceptional for bulb culture that we are in a position to send out even better bulbs.

We would appreciate your address and those of any interested friends.

Cultural Hints

Dahlias prefer a light sandy soil, although it may be truthfully said that they do well almost anywhere.

Soil that is too heavy should be treated with coal ashes, wood ashes or lime, to lighten it.

Too much fertilizer produces leaf and stalk, and inferior flowers.

Cultivation and watering are of prime importance, especially cultivation until the plants are well up, then care should be taken not to disturb the small rootlets.

Plant any time from May 1st to late June, according to locality and danger of frosts.

Under ordinary conditions, they will bloom in from 6 to 8 weeks.

Do not plant too early. Wait until the tubers begin to sprout and then you can tell right where to divide the clump in order to get single plant stalks. These are necessary for the best bloom.

Plant the bulb flat, never on end, sprout end up in trenches or in holes from 6 to 8 inches deep.

Not all varieties make large bulbs and in the majority of cases a small bulb will give as good and sometimes better results than larger bulbs.

To those who have had trouble with stunted plants, caused by the cinch bug, we advise spraying with arsenate of lead, using much the same solution as used for fruit trees. Spray when plants are from 1½ to 2 feet high.

Harvest Dahlia bulbs soon after frosts have blackened the foliage. Cut off stalks and allow to dry not longer than two hours out of doors. Shake off loose soil and store in boxes or barrels, putting stalk end of clump down.

Do not store in sawdust or other substance. Some of the varieties which make very small tubers may be stored in dry sand, and kept in a dry place to prevent shriveling. Cover boxes with paper to exclude the air as much as possible.

Keep in temperature above freezing.

Hot Water Treatment for Flowers

“Pick your Dahlias in the gloaming
And pick them with two pitchers at your side.
Plunge the stems in water boiling
And then in water cold as Arctic’s tide.
Then place the brimming jars,
Out neath the laughing stars,
Till crimson morn unbars
The East, to let the daylight pass.
And thus—you’ll find your Dahlias last a week!
But take them in while dew is on the grass.”
